PCVE TRAINING

Course for Understanding Radicalization into Violent Extremism (CURVE) is a Training of Trainers (ToT) that endeavors to provide participants with skills in preventing and countering violent extremism. The course comprises of ten modules and runs for two weeks, covering a range of topics.

Objectives

The objectives of the Course are:

1. To create a pool of trainers with a deep, wide and comprehensive grasp and understanding of Preventing and Countering Violent Extremism (PCVE).
2. To impart PCVE pedagogical skills to the course participants.
3. To expose the course participants to Islamic institutions and Muslim places of worship (especially Mosques and Madrassas) for familiarization and interaction with Muslim religious leaders.
4. To learn PCVE best practices from other parts of the world.

Expected Outcomes

By the end of the course the participants should be able to:

1. Analyze typology of terrorism.
2. Discuss role of religion in violent extremism.
3. Elaborate on the drivers of radicalization into violent extremism.
4. Identify early warning signs of a radicalized youth and a radicalizer.
5. Discuss effective messaging in PCVE.
6. Explain the role of duty bearers in PCVE.

7. Discuss preventive strategies to radicalization into violent extremism.
8. Develop PVE and CVE Action Plan.
9. Outline the historical development of violent extremism in the Horn of Africa region.
10. To organize a PCVE training - pedagogy and programming.

Important Information:

1. The minimum number of people to be trained is 20 and a maximum of 25 people.
2. Participants will organize for their transport and accommodation.
3. In the event that the facilitators travel, then the costs of transport and accommodation will be borne by the client.
